PREFACE.

En publiant le "COLLECTIONNEUR ILLUSTRÉ DES MONNAIES CANADIENNES," j'ai comblé une lacune dans la Numismatique, car le besoin d'un ouvrage illustré à un prix populaire était cessaire.

Mon but en publiant cet ouvrage est de faciliter la collection et de créer de nouveaux collectionneurs, et plus nous aurons de numismates, plus les monnaies canadiennes prendront de la valeur; je suis heureux de constater qu'actuellement nous avons des sous canadiens valant depuis un centin jusqu'à trois cents dollars plus, même les sous qui étaient en grande circulation il y a à peine cinq années, commencent déjà à être cotés à des prix qui rapportent de jolis bénéfices à ceux qui ont eu la bonne idée d'en faire une provision. Oh bien ! il se trouve encore de ces pièces qui avant peut-être un an ou deux auront beaucoup de valeur; est pourquoi j'engage un chacun à employer ses heures de loisir à un travail qui, tout en étant agréable et instructif, sera très avantageux.

Messieurs, que ce volume vous soit un guide et que pas un seul sou ne vous passe entre les mains sans le consulter, afin de bien vous renseigner sur sa valeur.

Il aurait été difficile pour moi de compléter mon travail sans l'obligeance et la coopération des messieurs écrivains qui non seulement m'ont aidé de leurs conseils, mais aussi ont mis leurs collections de grande valeur à ma disposition: Robert W. McLachlan, A. J. Boucher, L. R. Baridon, A. Desroches, J. O. La-ecque, E. A. Cardinal et Sergeant A. Desjardins, de Montréal et Joseph Hope, de Port Hope, Ont.

Je n'ai pas cru devoir fixer la rareté des pièces sans demander l'opinion des principaux collectionneurs, ce n'est qu'après avoir comparé leurs notes que j'ai décidé du degré de rareté et de valeur de chacune d'elles.

Je ne veux pas terminer sans offrir mon ouvrage à la critique, car malgré tout le soin que j'ai apporté à mon travail, il peut s'être glissé quelque erreur, assez fréquentes dans ces genres de publications, et je serai heureux, s'il y a quelque pièce que je n'ai pas, d'entrer en communication avec les personnes qui les auront, afin que de pouvoir les illustrer dans un prochain supplément, et ce sera avec la plus grande attention que je recevrai toutes les remarques que l'on croira devoir me faire, soit par écrit ou autrement et de mon côté je me rai un devoir de donner toutes les informations possibles à ceux qui se procureront mon ouvrage, afin de les aider à devenir de bons collectionneurs. Chaque lettre devra être accompagnée d'un timbre pour la réponse.

La photogravure de ce livre a été confiée à Mr J. G. Armstrong, de Lachine, d'après des dessins à la plume faits par Mr Geo. Bertrand, artiste-dessinateur, 1598, rue Notre-Dame, Montréal.

P. N. BRETON.

Montréal, 1er octobre 1890.

PREFACE.

In undertaking the publication of "THE ILLUSTRATED CANADIAN COIN COLLECTOR," I believe that, at a reasonable price, I have been able to fill a want long felt by Numismatists.

My aim in preparing this work has been to stimulate collecting, by stirring up old collectors and creating a taste for the study among those to whom its attractions are unknown; thus, the value of Canadian Coins which range in price from one cent to three hundred dollars and over, may be still further enhanced. Coins that only some five years ago were frequently found in circulation are now rare and quoted at comparatively high figures; and collectors, who were fortunate enough to form their collections then or to lay by such coins as came in their way, have been amply rewarded for their trouble. Many coins still continue in circulation which were their value known by those through whose hands they pass, might be saved before they are lost or defaced. This is my reason for wishing to encourage tyros to enter the list of collectors, who, thus devoting their leisure to the study, will be rewarded by the enhanced value of their treasures, as well as interested and amused.

I hope that this volume may indeed prove a guide to collectors and others who, comparing with the illustrations such strange or unfamiliar Canadian coins as may come into their hands, may ascertain their value. It will often many times repay its cost.

It would have been a difficult task for me to have properly completed this work without the kind assistance of the following gentlemen, who not only helped me with their counsel, but placed their valuable collections at my disposal: R. W. McLachlan, A. J. Boucher, L. R. Baridon, A. Desroches, J. O. Labrecque, E. A. Cardinal and Sergeant A. Desjardins, of Montreal and Jos. Hooper, of Port Hope, Ont.

I only decided on the degree of rarity affixed to each coin after submitting such decision to the different collectors and after carefully comparing their notes and suggestions.

Before concluding let me invite a full criticism of the work, for, although I have done my best, errors cannot but have slipped in. I shall be glad to receive suggestions from collectors as to necessary improvements, pointing out errors or notifying me of omissions or of new issues. Illustrations of these will be given in a supplement to be published at some future date. Any communication on the subject of Canadian Coins from those desiring information, I will gladly do my best to answer; but all such letters should contain a stamp for reply.

The illustrations in this work were made at Lachine, by Mr. J. G. Armstrong's Photo-Engraving process from drawings by Mr. Geo. Bertrand, Artist, 1598 Notre Dame Street, Montreal.

P. N. BRETON.

Montreal, October 1st, 1890.

NOTE.

The following is the explanation of the symbols used in this volume to indicate the degree of rarity and the approximate value of each number.

PREFACE.

Lorsque j'ai publié mon "COLLECTIONNEUR ILLUSTRÉ DES MONNAIES CANADIENNES," en octobre 1890, j'étais loin de m'attendre au succès qui a couronné cette publication, et je suis heureux d'annoncer que j'en ai vendu quatre mille exemplaires dans l'espace de dix-huit mois; j'ose compter sur la bienveillance déjà reçue pour offrir aujourd'hui mon premier supplément annuel qui illustre 108 pièces, en partie composées de jetons ou cartes d'affaires. Je dirai en passant que le nombre de ces jetons s'est accru d'une façon alarmante pour les collectionneurs qui ont commencé à en faire la collection, et je demanderai le concours d'un chacun pour tâcher autant que possible à en restreindre le nombre à l'avenir, car il serait regrettable que les collectionneurs fatigués du nombre toujours croissant de ces jetons se décident un jour à les exclure entièrement de leur cabinet. Bornons-nous donc aux pièces parues jusqu'à ce jour et n'encourageons pas celles qui paraîtront à l'avenir. Ce premier supplément sera suivi autant que possible d'un supplément annuel, afin de tenir les collectionneurs au courant des augmentations ou autres changements dans les pièces canadiennes, et en même temps pour faire connaître les nouvelles découvertes.

Je dois des remerciements aux messieurs suivants, qui ont bien daigné me procurer les pièces que je ne possédais pas pour l'illustration de ce supplément: Messieurs Robert W. McLachlan et Dr. Leroux, de Montréal; L. J. Casault, F. R. E. Campeau et F. X. Paquet, d'Ottawa, Ont.; Louis Laurin, Pointe Gatineau, Que. Je ferai une mention toute spéciale de Mr Lyman H. Low, le populaire numismate et marchand de monnaies de New-York, qui a eu la gracieuseté de mettre à ma disposition toutes les effigies de pièces canadiennes qu'il a eu occasion de rencontrer depuis de nombreuses années, et parmi lesquelles se trouve la série de pièces de Repentigny illustrées sous les numéros 349 G à 349 R; ces jetons qui ont été probablement faits en même temps que les pièces connues sous le nom de "Bout-de-l'Île" ne sont pas autre chose d'après Mr. Low, que des pièces d'essai, refusées pour adopter celles que nous connaissons. Les connaissances approfondies de ce monsieur m'ont été d'une grande utilité dans les variétés de certaines pièces, et pour coter les raretés le mieux possible. Mr Low est le propriétaire de la célèbre maison connue sous le nom de "Scott Stamp and Coin Co. de New-York."

Changements dans les raretés du Collectionneur nécessités par l'avancement ou la diminution des pièces, constatés depuis sa publication;

MONTRÉAL, Juin 1892.

PREFACE.

Encouraged by the success attained by the publication of my "ILLUSTRATED CANADIAN COIN COLLECTOR," issued in October 1890, of which I sold four thousand copies, I am induced to publish my first annual supplement which illustrates 108 pieces, mostly composed of tokens and business cards. The excessive number of these tokens, which have been manufactured within such a short period and which have no historical importance, warrants me in advising collectors to rigidly exclude from their collections any issued after this date, admitting only those published.

I intend issuing a supplement annually, illustrating additions and varieties and altering values. I have to thank the following gentlemen, who have kindly procured for me pieces to enable me to give accurate illustrations; Messrs. R. W. McLachlan and Dr. Leroux of this city, and L. J. Casault, F. R. E. Campeau and F. X. Paquet, of Ottawa, Ont.; and Louis Laurin, of Gatineau Point, Que. I must however make special mention of Mr. Lyman H. Low, the popular Numismatist and dealer in Coins, Medals, etc., and proprietor of the Scott Stamp and Coin Co. of New York, who kindly placed at my disposal his rubbings of Canadian Coins, among which is the series of Repentigny tokens illustrated under numbers 349 G to 349 R. These were probably struck at the same time as the Bridge tokens, and are, to the best of Mr. Low's knowledge, a pattern set which has been refused. Mr. Low has also kindly assisted me in determining rarity values and varieties not before known.

Changes on the rarities mentioned in "BRETON'S ILLUSTRATED CANADIAN COIN COLLECTOR," as necessitated by the advance or decline of pieces since its publication:

Numbers 40, 41, 42, 43, 48, 88, 92, 96, 157, 162, 197 and 204. R 1 instead of C.

Numbers 52, 66, 72, 80, 81, 81a, 106, 124, 126, 129, 131, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 141, 143, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 161, 163, 166, 167, 198, 199, 210, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 225, 226, 229, 230, 231, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 243, 244, 245, 310. R 2 instead of R 1.
